Foreword

The ideal of all schools is to turn out well-rounded individuals. This aim can be likened to a chain composed of the links of School-life, Academics, Sports, Activities and Classes.

Just as strong links forge a strong chain, so does a strong school program make a sound individual person. The goal of this yearbook, The 1967-68 Charger, is to present all Southern Wells "chain" of education.

REWARD OF SERVICE

The sweetest lives are those to duty wed,
Whose deeds both great and small
Are close-knit strands of an unbroken thread,
Where love ennobles all.

The world may sound no trumpets, ring no bells,
The Book of Life the slurring record tells.

Thy love shall chant its own beatitudes,
After its own like working. A child's kiss
Set on thy singing lips shall make thee glad;

A poor man served by thee shall make thee rich;
A sick man helped by thee shall make thee strong;
Thou shalt be served thyself by every sense
Of service which thou renderest.

MR. WILLIAM PAYNE
Principal

In a democracy each individual is of importance and has his rightful place in our society. The continuation and growth of a democracy is dependent upon the education of each of its citizens. The goal and responsibility of our Southern Wells Community Schools is to develop each student, regardless of race, creed, or wealth, so that, to the best of his capacity, he may earn his livelihood; be of service to mankind; live happily with himself and others and assume responsibility as a world citizen.

Our teaching will at all times take into consideration the Seven Cardinal Principles--Health--Command of Fundamental processes--Vocation--Worthy Home Membership--Citizenship--Worthy Use of Leisure and Ethical Character.

MRS. CASTELO - Typing, Shorthand

MRS. FOY - Office Practice, Latin, Business Placement

MR. MYERS - Physical Education, Business Math, Bookkeeping

Cooperative Office Education was added to the Southern Wells Business Curriculum this year. This course combines work experience and training on the job with a related study session. This combination results in a well-balanced occupational preparation.

This year's program proved very successful. The students working, the employers, and Mrs. Foy, business placement coordinator, all expressed their satisfaction with the program.

Math = Learning + Fun

Learning can be fun! Strangely enough, that's one of the things the Senior Math Class learned this year. Math need only be as dull as you make it.

One of the things each advanced mathematics class always struggles with is probabilities. This year, however, it was no struggle, it was fun. The boys (it seems no senior girls were courageous enough to attempt the course) used cards and dice to figure probabilities which proved agreeable to all of the students.

One of the Geometry classes also used a different method of learning. They made pentominos and hexominos (five and six-squared dominos) to figure out problems. All in all this was a learning year in mathematics!

MR. CARNES - Driver's Training, Jr. High Math

MR. MORTON - Driver's Training, Health

One look at today's traffic casualty list makes the reasons for including Driver's Training in the curriculum clear.

Mr. Carnes and Mr. Morton instructed the Driver's Training students in the areas of parallel and angle parking, traffic laws, driving obstacle courses, and driving in traffic.

Having probably the most dangerous job of any of the faculty members, they completed the year without any serious injuries. This deserves a pat on the back, don't you think?

"What did you say that was, Dave?"

"Here we go again," says Mr. Morton.

The Sound Of Music

MRS. CLINE - Jr. High Music, Chorus

Throughout the school year, the sound of music filled the air--music provided by the bands and choruses of Southern Wells.

The last minute rehearsals, the practice you never seemed to get squeezed in--these are the memories the musicians of Southern Wells will never forget. Nor will they ever forget Mrs. Cline or Mr. McElhaney under whose direction the music department of Southern Wells flourished.

MR. McELHANEY - Band

There was always music to be sorted ...

... and a band to be directed.

Language — The Key To Understanding

MRS. PARRA - Spanish

World peace will depend on many things--one thing definitely needed will be understanding obtained by communication in many different languages.

This is the reason for the study of foreign languages at Southern Wells. Spanish is a modern language needed for communication with Spanish-speaking countries, and Latin is the basis for many other languages. The study of both of these subjects is essential for world progress.

Latin Club officers and sponsor, Mrs. Foy, view Latin projects in display case.

Mrs. Parra explains the Spanish lesson to her class.

Art Is Many Things

MR. CROMER - Art

With a little imagination and a lot of patience, the most common items can be made into artistic masterpieces.

Under Mr. Cromer's direction, cardboard, paint, and old sheets assumed the forms of angels for the Choir Christmas Concert; paint and canvas were combined to make beautiful paintings; and bits of glass and some cement created decorative mosaics.

Incredible? Yes, that's the word describing the work of the Art Department during 1967-68.

MRS. BOWDELL -
Home Economics

Home Economics — Training For The Future

Action was the word for the Home Economics Department this year. Along with regular classroom work, field trips supplied added interest. The I&M exhibit showing good lighting techniques, Ledbetter's Meat Plant where the cutting of beef was observed, and the Berne Furniture Factory were some of the places visited by Home Economics students this year.

The newest addition to the Home Economics course this year was a class of three weeks for boys. During this period Mr. Hamilton traded the boys in his Industrial Arts Class for the girls in Mrs. Bowdell's class. The boys spent the three weeks studying foods. They made coffee cake, graham cracker pie, spaghetti and meat balls, and tossed salad among other things.

Plans for next year include a Home Economics Vocational Placement Program.

Communication — The Key To Individualism

MRS. MINER - Jr. High English

MR. MORRIS - English, Journalism

MRS. RETHLAKE - English, Speech

MR. SCHLAGENHAUF - English, Jr. High English

Nouns, verbs, prepositions, adjectives, adverbs ... Does it benefit a student to be able to pick out a word and know it is a noun if he can't use these nouns to write effectively and communicate with others? This was the question asked by the faculty members of the English Department. As an answer to the question, a new method of teaching English was begun at Southern Wells. Instead of spending a semester on grammar, and then one on literature, the two subjects have combined into a year's course. Grammar is still studied, but only as a tool of effective communication.

Seeing the stage production of Julius Caesar and the Crucible, hearing interesting lectures given by visiting speakers, and entering various essay and speech contests gave added interest to the English courses.

In all phases of English work this year communication and Individualism were emphasized.

Teaching English requires extensive preparation.

Agriculture And Industrial Arts Offer Valuable Training

MR. LIEURANCE - Agriculture

For those who were interested in making farming or a related agricultural job their career, agriculture courses at Southern Wells gave them a solid background.

Courses in Agriculture Production, Soil and Plant Science, Farm Shop, and Horticulture and Landscaping offered a wealth of valuable know-how.

The vocational placement program in agriculture gave students an opportunity of gaining first-hand experience on the job.

MR. ROUSH - Jr. High Science, Agriculture

Industrial Education provides valuable training for students interested in factory work, welding, or a printing job. Southern Wells offered classes in Metalwork, Graphic Arts, and Mechanical Drawing. These courses established a firm foundation in skills which will be very useful in the student's chosen vocation.

Preparation For The Future Demands Knowledge Of The Past

An understanding of the past provides us with the key to the future. With this thought in mind, the Social Studies Department sets its goal. To accomplish this goal, extras such as field trips, stock market experimentation, filmstrips, and mock elections are included in each course. By giving the students a proper background in history, this department helps form well-rounded individuals and United States citizens.

SW Strives Toward Goal Of Physical Fitness

MRS. DICK - Physical Education, Typing

MR. RETHLAKE - Physical Education, Typing, Salesmanship

Physical education forms an important part of the modern program of general education. Classes this year at SW included activities and sports of all kinds such as basketball, soccer, table tennis, gymnastics, volleyball, and track and field events. These activities, under the direction of Mr. Rethlake, Mrs. Dick, and Mr. Myers, were designed to improve posture, physical development, and general physical fitness.

Performing on the balance beam is a part of every physical education class.

The Raiders Keep Fighting

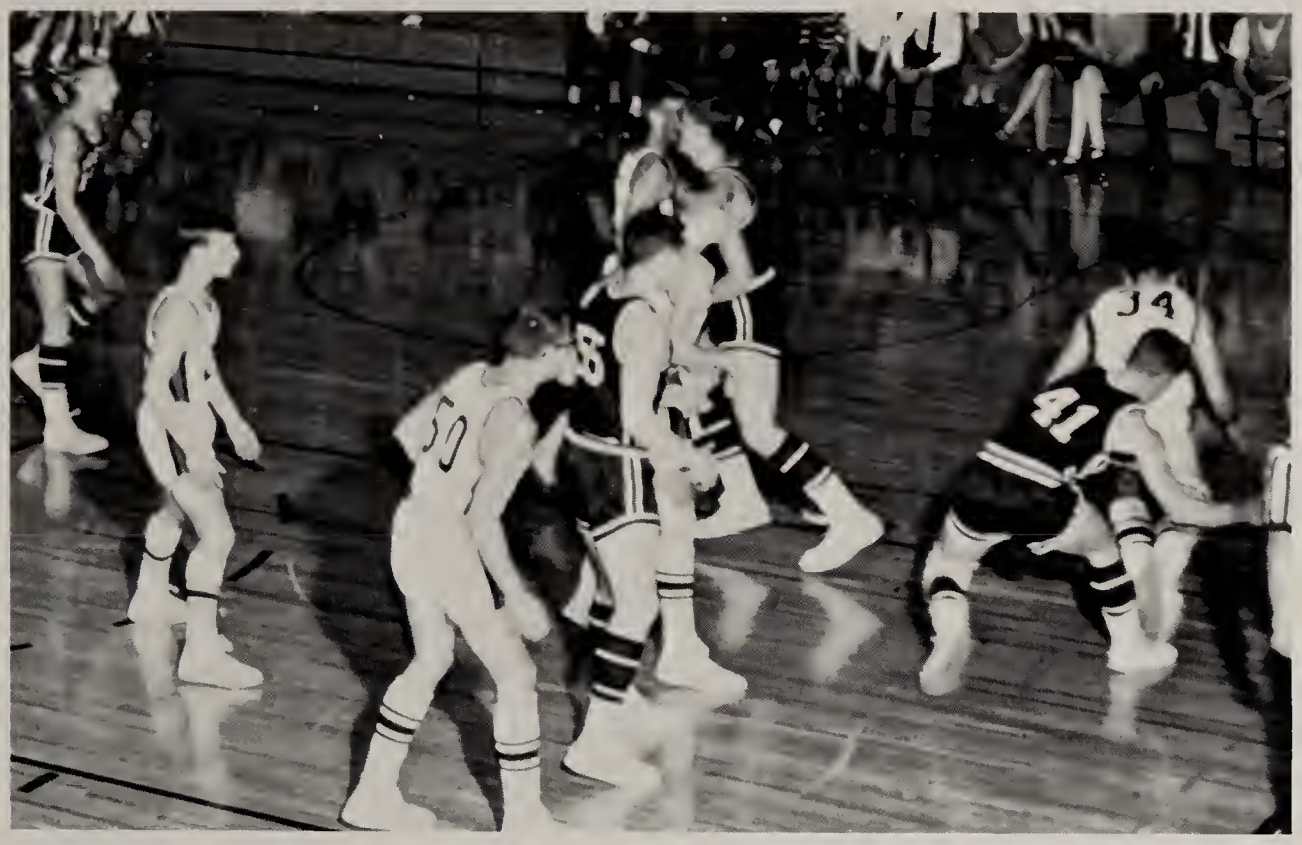
The 1967-68 season was a rebuilding year for the Raiders with only 1 returning letterman for the 1966-67 team. The boys started off rather slowly but signs of improvement showed all through the season. The team managed only 3 victories in 21 games but Coach Rethlake is proud of every boy for giving everything he had.

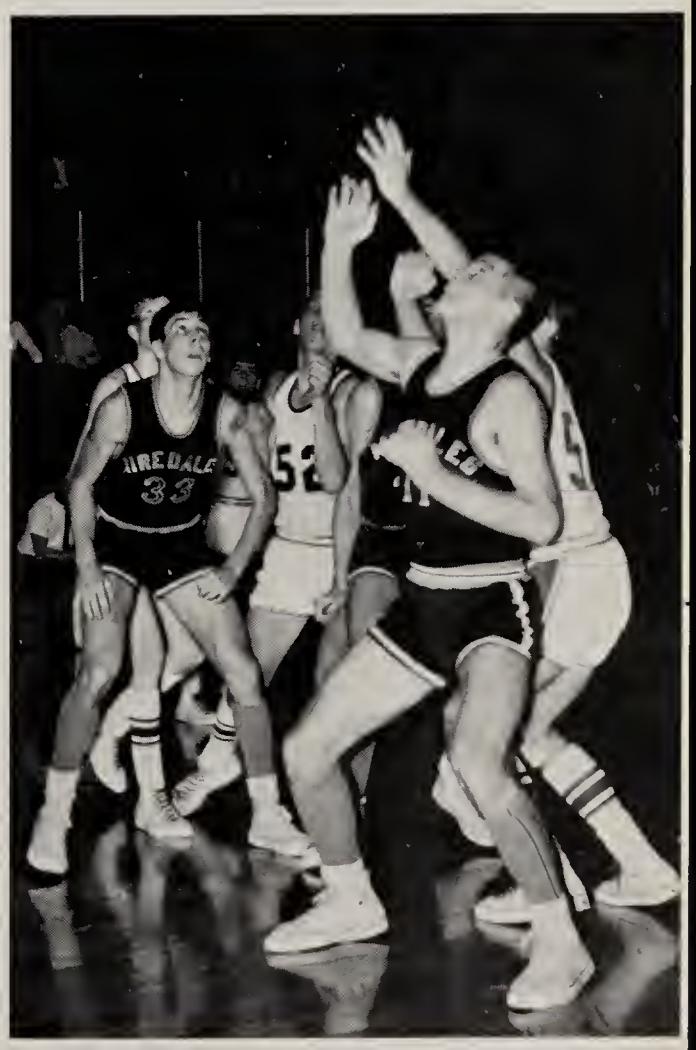
CHEERLEADERS: Linda Leas, Jill Kober, Cammy Lieurance, and Rhonda Johns.

When The Going Gets Tough



No. 34 Tim Zoda out-hustles opponent for possession of the ball.

Keith Paxson pulls down another rebound for the Raiders.



The Raiders always fought for position under the boards.

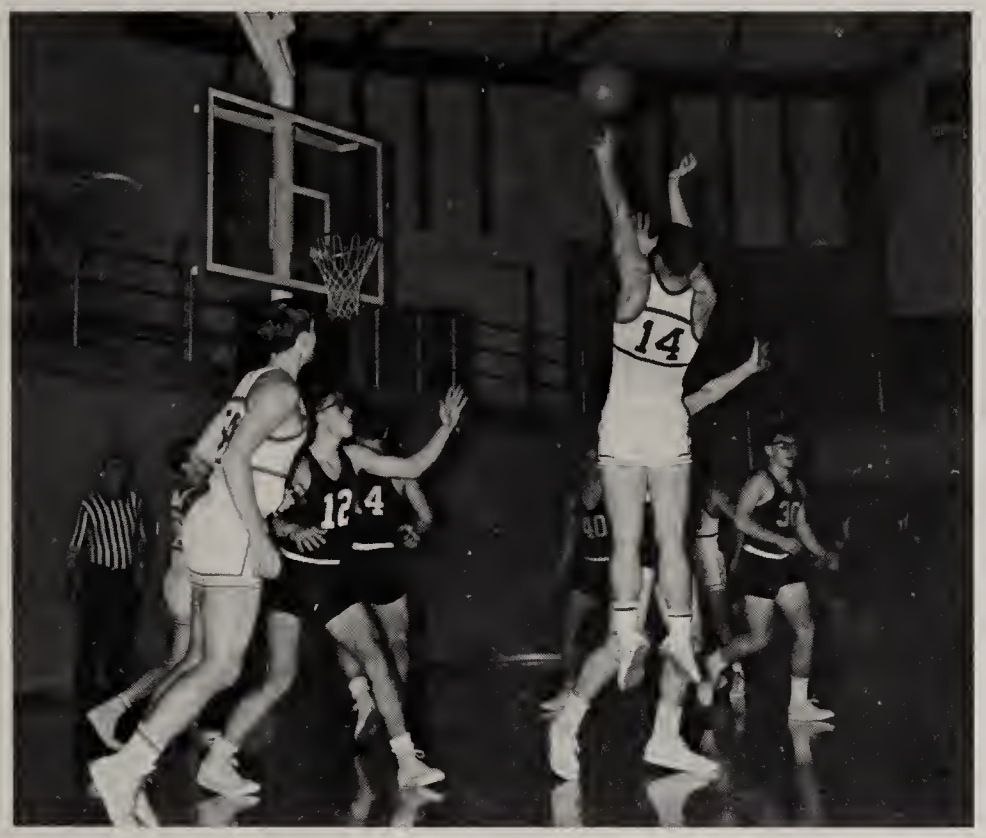
Reserve Team — Unequalled

STANDING: Randy Clements, Bruce Osborn, Brent Cardin, Gary Sleppy, Dave Cole, Ed Shannon, Ron Meekin. KNEELING: Coach Ross Myers, Rod Mounsey, Joe Dickason, Jeff Smith, Sid King, Student manager Ted Harris.

The reserve basketball team finished the season with 4 victories and 16 defeats. The season wasn't as bad as their record might indicate though as they lost a lot of their games by less than 5 points. The boys gained valuable experience and all of the boys will be pushing for varsity spots next year.

CHEERLEADERS are: Cindy Sleppy, Clarice Beechler, Joetta McMillan, and Terry Mendenhall.

In Hustle And Desire



Gary Sleppy adds another two for the Raiders.

No. 44, Doug Fuller, seems to be doing the twist trying to steal the ball.

Height was a disadvantage for Coach Warren Morton's freshman lads and it showed as the boys ended the season with a 2-9 record. The year wasn't as bad as their record might indicate though because they lost a lot of close ones and the boys gained valuable experience needed for the upcoming year.

CHEERLEADERS are STANDING: Trudy McMillan, Dottie McCammon. KNEELING: Judy Kober, Sue Inskeep.

A Look At The 8th Grade

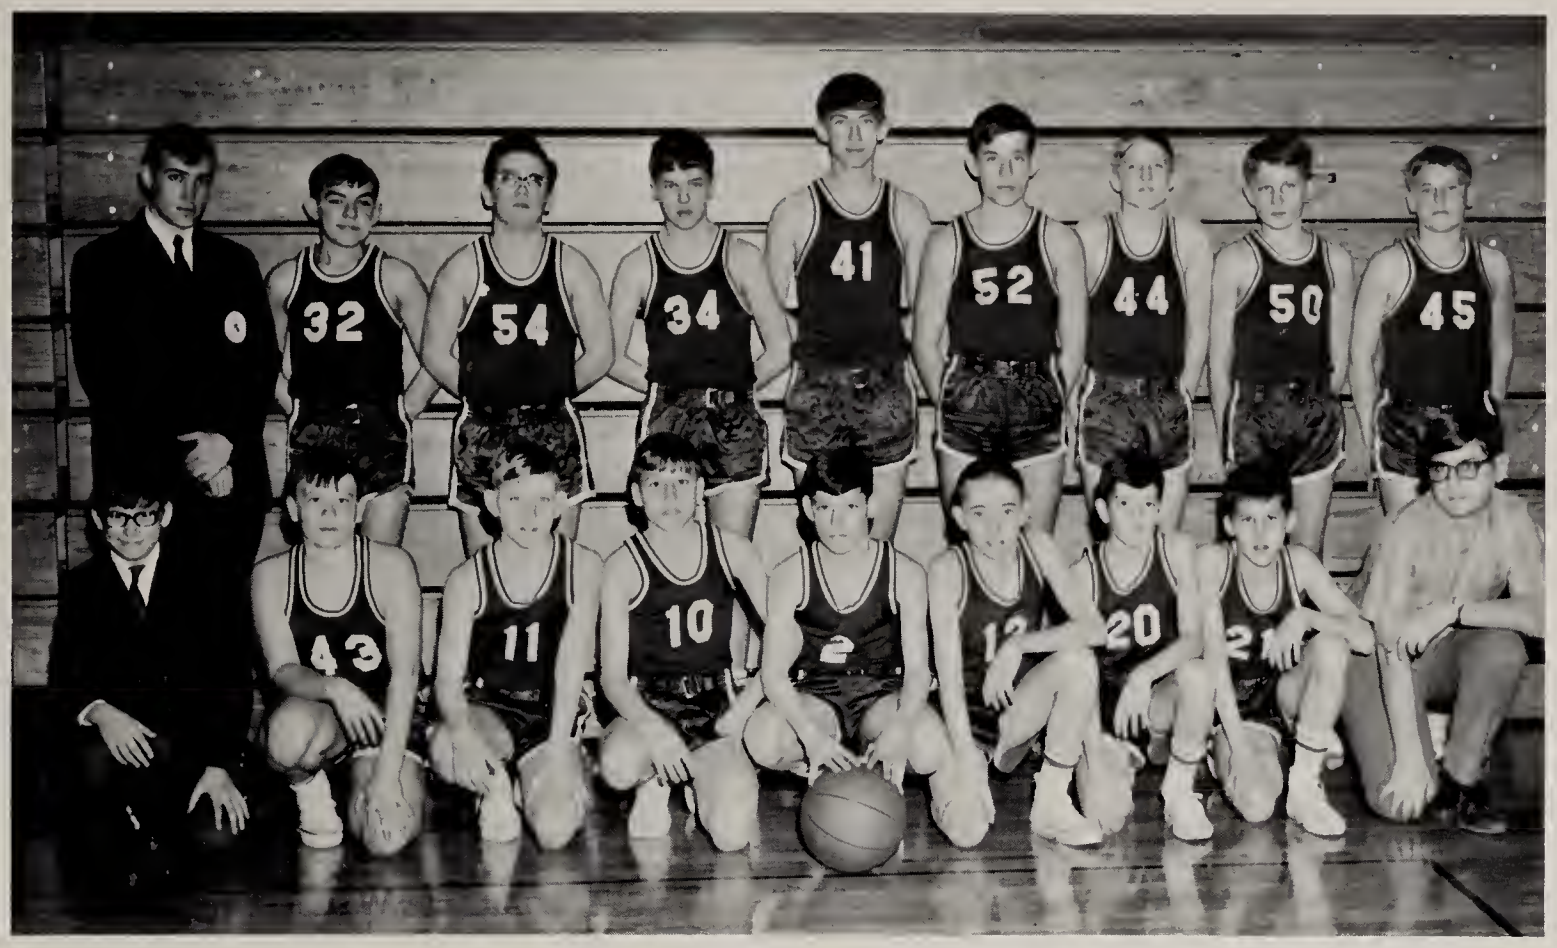
The eighth grade basketball team finished another successful campaign with 11 victories and 8 defeats. In the Pennville Invitational Tourney Coach Gilbert's team captured third place in a field of eight teams. The boys gained valuable experience throughout the year and Mr. Gilbert expresses pleasure in working with them.

CHEERLEADERS: Debbie Warner, Debbie Clark, and Carol Martin.

Future Raiders

7th Grade



STANDING: Coach Bob Morris, Jon Holloway, Russell Murray, Tim Powell, Tim Grimm, Roger Mertz, Tom Oswalt, Larry Miller and Mitchell Vaughn. KNEELING: Steve Klefeker, Rick Murray, Doug Gilbert, James Dulworth, Lee Gearheart, Mike Bumgarner, Gary Stroup and student managers Steve Love and Guy Studebaker.

A 14-3 record earned by the seventh grade basketball team shows bright hopes for the future at S. W. The highlight of the season was defeating Ossian and Roll in the Southern Wells Invitational Tourney. Mr. Morris expressed gratitude for the boys for a fine season.

CHEERLEADERS: Marlene Nusbaumer, Vickie Palmer and Sherrie Furnish.

Harriers Post 7-4 Season

The 1967-68 season was a good one for the cross country team as they won 7 and lost 4 plus good showings in the Invitationals and sectional. In the Pennville Invitational, the Raiders placed 5th out of 11 places, in the A.C.A.C. meet they placed 5th in a field of 11, and in the sectional they came in 9th in a field of 22 teams. Individually, Kenny Warner led the Raider attack, followed by Senior Tim Zoda.

Kenny Warner blitzes across the finish line.

Robey Taylor aims very carefully.

Golf was a new addition to the Southern Wells Athletic Program this year. Golf enabled boys who were unable to play other sports to get a chance to compete against boys from other schools. Since very few of the boys had ever played Golf, they failed to win a match, but the boys enjoyed it very much. All of the boys will be back next year so Mr. Rethlake predicts that prospects are good for next year.

Strokes Toward Success

THIRD ROW: Coach Warren Morton, Keith Paxson, Joe Nash, Bob Bailey, Ted Frantz, Tom Gearheart, Donnie Huffman, Coach Gene Grogg.

The Southern Wells Track team had a very successful season this year as they broke almost every school record, plus a county record in the high hurdles.

Although their final record was 4-4, they played some very good teams to which they lost by only a few points.

Coach Morton is looking forward to an even better season next year as many of his lettermen are returning.

Set, Goooo!

On Your Mark — Go

Mr. Morris and Mr. Gilbert coached the junior high cross country and track teams this year. Their record in cross country was 1-3 and in track it was 0-4. Cross country and track was something new to most of the boys and although they didn't win very many meets, there were bright prospects for future Southern Wells cross country and track teams.

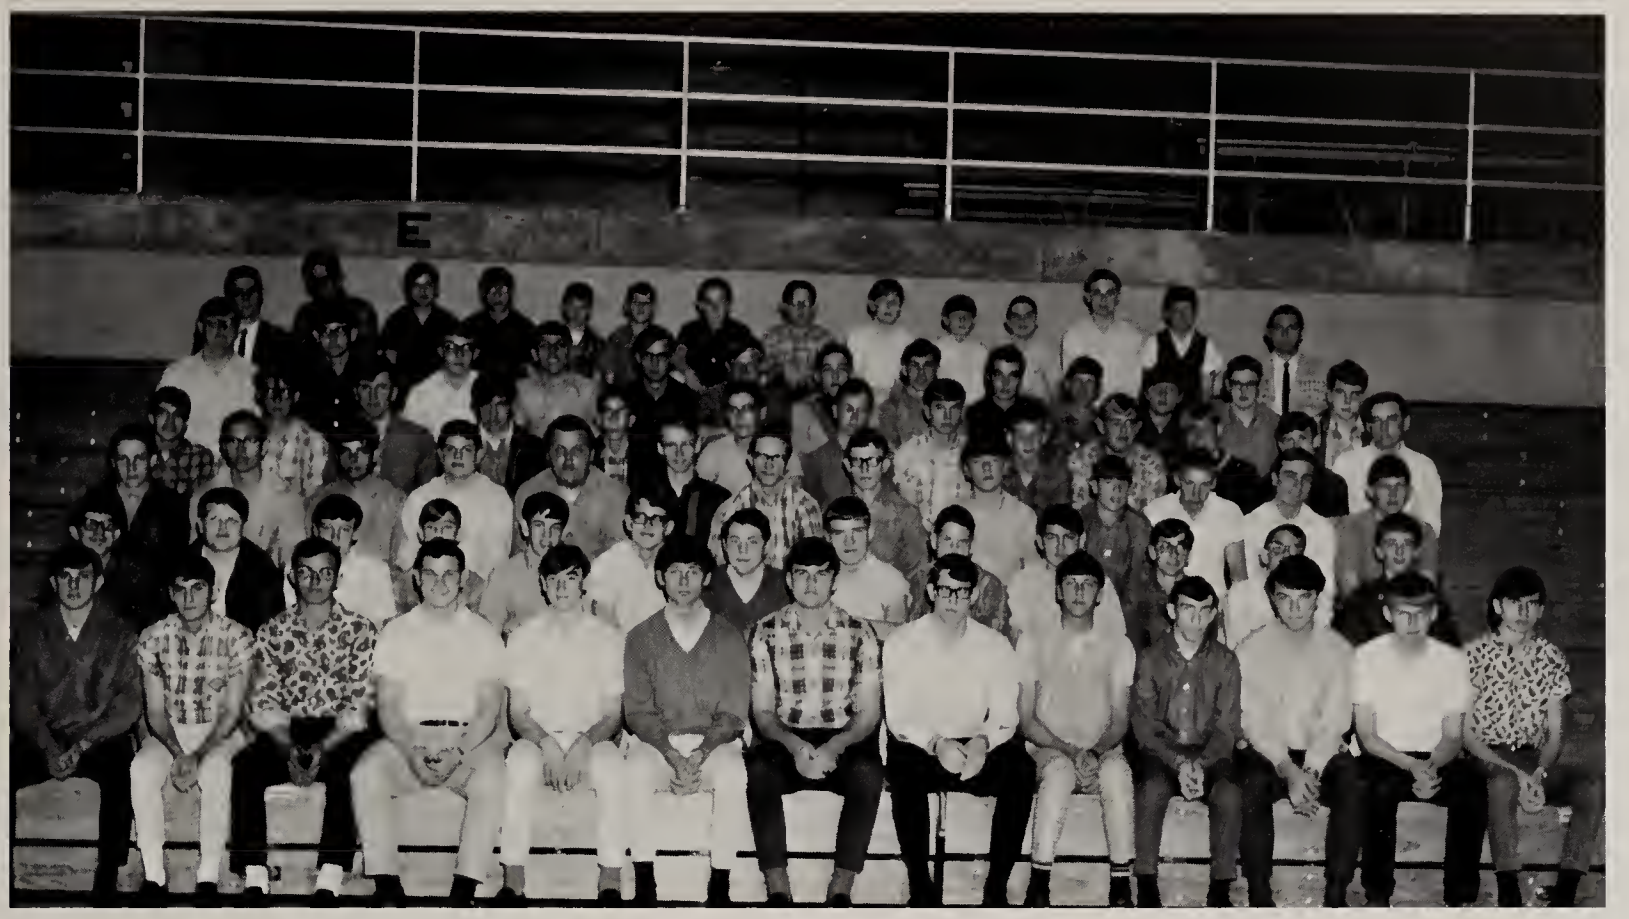
Intramurals Provide Exercise for Many Boys



Intramurals provided lots of fun and excitement for the boys in grade seven through twelve who did not participate in athletics at Southern Wells. There was plenty of good basketball and flag football displayed throughout the year. Under the supervision of Larry Sell and Jerry Penrod, the intramural program has been a fine credit to the Southern Wells athletic program.

It's Going, It's Gone,

KNEELING: Coach Myers, Joe Nash, Norm Miller, Tom Gearheart, Ed Shannon, Jim Uptgraft, Steve Couch. SITTING: Jeff Smith, Sid King, Jon Smith, Larry Herring, Brent Cardin, and Jim Pace.

The baseball team had its ups and downs this year due to summer jobs and farm work which limited the services of key players. The team finished the season with a won-lost record of 3-14. However, the statistics do not tell the whole story. Many of the games were decided by only 1 or 2 runs. Mr. Myers was pleased with the first SW baseball team and indicated that the forthcoming season would show a much better record than this one had.

It's A Home Run

Sid King gets ready to "belt" one for Southern Wells.

Kris Dunn is ready for anything that comes his way.

GAA — Where The Action Is

STANDING: Mrs. Dick, Sandy Sleppy, Beth Simpson, Dee Hiday, Clarice Beechler, Vickie Haiflich, Kathy Powell, Mrs. Williams. MIDDLE: Marilyn Osborn, Susan Poulson, Joyce Day, Carol Schweikhardt, Sharon Herr, Diane Sutton, Rosemary Walburn. FIRST: Cynthia Walburn, Joetta McMillan, Sheryl Helms, and Doris Brinneman.

The Girls Athletic Association, under the direction of Mrs. Dick and Mrs. Williams, keeps an active pace. The members learn the fundamentals of basketball and volleyball. The girls played G.A.A. teams from other schools and in basketball they finished with a very respectable 4-2 record.

Sue Poulson returns volleyball for another S.W. point.

We've Got Spirit!

The cheerblock plays a big role during basketball season. Dressed in red and blue jerseys the girls cheer their team on with the spirit which only a well-organized pep club can have. The success of the cheer block this year stemmed from the leadership of the cheerleaders and the supervision of Mrs. Dick and Mrs. Bowdell.

Pep club members display fine spirit during the game.

VIVIES

Happy Voices

There must be a reason why one hundred and thirty-six students were in the Southern Wells High School Chorus last year. There is--the pride of being in an organization that performs often and performs well.

The boys, attired in royal blue blazers and the girls in new, light blue dresses, performed often. They presented a Thanksgiving program, a Christmas program, a Spring Festival in conjunction with the Norwell Choir under the direction of Varner Chance, and sang at the Baccalaureate.

The Swing Choir specialized in performances outside of school. They provided the program for a Rotary banquet, the Chester Alumni Banquet, and a Mother and Daughter Banquet in Bluffton.

Blending Freely

One of the highlights of each year in Chorus is attending the District Solo and Ensemble Contest. Southern Wells captured 156 gold medals and 70 silver medals. The groups went on to win 61 gold medals and 5 silver medals in the State Contest. This is quite a record, and one of which all chorus members can be very proud.

The Troubadors, pictured below, performed for many special programs. They too have a new look this year as they have acquired blue vests to wear with their regular blazers. The Troubadors entered in both the district and state contests and received gold medals for their efforts in the two events.

This group performed at many outside activities and received gold medals at state and district contests.

The Thespians put on one play last year entitled "Our Town". This play proved to be quite a success. The Thespian's instructors were Mrs. Rethlake and Mr. Schlagenhauf. The president of the Thespians was Jill Holloway.

COE

The COE stands for Cooperative Office Education. This is a program to combine maximum efficiency with opportunity in preparing boys and girls 16 years of age or older for occupational life. It also provided on-the-job training. In this program, directed by Mrs. Foy, the students earned credits while they worked.

Music Was Heard

The Southern Wells High School Band performed frequently at ball games, gave two concerts, attended the district contest, and went on a band tour to Pennville and Eastbrook schools. Constantly seeking to better itself, two new instruments, the piccolo and timpani were added to the instrumentation. The band is under the direction of Mr. Thomas McElhaney.

Uniforms sparkling, trumpets gleaming, the band gives its rendition of Broadway Hits at a halftime show during a SW ball game.

Throughout The Year

The Junior Band marched at the 4-H Fair, the Street Fair, and also performed in the Southern Wells Band Concerts. This band is composed of junior high and grade school students and is under the direction of Mr. Thomas McElhaney.

The Southern Wells Swing Band gave many "swinging" performances throughout the year.
